Technical seminar

The seminar is designed to give delegates flexible access to relevant material from industry leaders. Content is based on IDGTE's depth of industry knowledge and achieving a balanced mix of topical subjects.

The exhibition is located between the two presentation areas and open throughout the day such that delegates will be able to access exhibits and interact with representatives from 9.30am onwards.

Corporate luncheon tables, with your company's corporate identity, are the ideal way to engage with your existing and potential clients and network with colleagues and friends in a less formal setting and hear some of the latest news in the industry from the Principal Guest. The Guest Speaker is sure to inspire and bring a little light relief from the business of the day.
